Q. 4. Who

Q. 4. Who have died this year?

A. 1. ROBERT ROBERTS. He was a faithful minister of Christ above forty years, having reached the period of life, when human nature generally fails. His voice and memory were greatly weakened, a considerable time before his death. But he was still mighty in the scriptures, diligent in the work of the Lord, and benevolent in his temper. He was a pleasing fellow-labourer, against whose character no charge was ever brought. An account of his life written by himself, is given in the August and September numbers of the Methodist Magazine, 1800. He lived holy, and died happy in God his Saviour.

2. JOHN FURZE, an aged servant of the Lord. He travelled many years in our connexion, and was a zealous defender of our purest doctrines. His mental powers were so decayed, that, for several years, he seemed sunk in second childhood; but he retained his piety, and closed his life in holy triumph, having fought the good fight of faith.

3. JOHN MCKERSEY; a man of so great affliction, that he was forced to give up travelling, being unable to keep a circuit. When near death he said, "I do not feel that ecstacy of joy, which some speak of, but I feel a solid peace, and an unshaken confidence in God, through the merits of Jesus Christ my Saviour." He was so far from fearing death, that he could use the Apostle's words, "I desire to depart, and be with Christ, which is far better." He was remarkable for his resignation to the will of God, in circumstances peculiarly trying, and died, praising the Lord for his loving kindness.

4. JOHN JENNINGS was a young man of true piety, zeal and diligence. He laboured faithfully in the Lord's vineyard, and was ready for every good work. He enjoyed great comfort in his afflictions, and departed this life in holy triumph. His memory is precious to many, who were blest under his ministry.

5. JOHN

5. JOHN DUTTON, a truly pious young man. He laboured for a few years in England, and then proceeded to the West Indies, on account of some family affairs. The desire and purpose of his heart was, to aid the Missions in those Islands; but the Lord, in his mysterious Providence, was pleased to call him to his eternal home, after a few weeks residence in the Island of Jamaica.

6. ROBERT GREEN, a young man, whose understanding, study, diligence in the work of the ministry, and close walking with God, promised great usefulness and success in the Church of Christ; but it pleased God to call him to glory, in that world, where the inhabitants no more shall say they are sick. Some of his last expressions were,—“I shall praise the Lord for ever,—for ever, and ever!—I know I shall!” For a more full account, see the last July number of the Methodist Magazine.

7. JOHN VIPOND. He only preached a few times last year after he got into his circuit, before he was seized with a fever, of which he died. He was wonderfully supported, during his sickness, by the divine Spirit, and entered into the rest remaining for the people of God, with joy unspeakable and full of glory. His character was unblemished, and his talents very promising; but the great Head of the Church knows best when to call home his servants.

8. FRANCIS JUENE. He was a native of the Island of Jersey, and spoke fluently the French language. He was a very holy man, and of a pleasing temper. There was a great probability of his being exceedingly useful among the negroes in the Island of Grenada, after it became subject to the English. But it pleased God to call him hence, by a violent fever.

9. DAVID GORDON. He travelled about fourteen years in Ireland. He was an acceptable preacher wherever he went, and a man of sincere devotion to God,

God, of good sense, and a pleasing address. His last days may be truly said to be his best.

10. ARCHIBALD MONTGOMERY. He travelled a few years with profit to the people, and credit to himself, uniting a happy sweetness of disposition and address with a good understanding and genuine piety. He devoted his life a sacrifice to his ministerial labours, and ended it in full triumphant hope of life eternal, in the 28th year of his age.

While every pious reader of these accounts of the deaths of so many Ministers of Christ is disposed to give glory to God in the highest, for his love to them, it is hardly possible to be without a degree of fear, lest their loss should be severely felt. O that the ever blessed God may fill their places with burning and shining lights, and enable all his servants to be prepared for the solemn hour, when they must go into an eternal world!

Q. 5. Who have desisted from travelling?

A. John Brice, for want of health; and Joseph Cross.

Q. 6. Are there any objections to any of our Preachers?

A. They were examined one by one.

Q. 7. How are the Preachers stationed this year?

Q. 12. What Boys are admitted this year into KINGSWOOD SCHOOL? *

A. William Holmes, John Moon, John Horner, John
Jeune, Alexander Suter, Samuel Kene, John Gaulter, John Crosby, George Highfield, John Reynolds, Richard Condry.

* The Receipts and Disbursements of the Yearly and Kings-wood-School-Collections, are given at the close of the Minutes.

SUNDRY MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

Q. 13. Do we sufficiently explain and enforce practical religion, and attend to the preservation of order and regularity in our meetings for prayer and other acts of divine worship?

A. Perhaps not. We fear there has sometimes been irregularity in some of the meetings. And we think that some of our hearers are in danger of mistaking EMOTIONS OF THE AFFECTIONS for experimental and practical godliness. To remedy or prevent, as far as possible, these errors, let Mr. Wesley's Extract of Mr. Edwards's Pamphlet on Religious Affections be printed, without delay, and circulated among our people.

Q. 14. Are the Preachers' houses sufficiently provided with books, and in particular with Commentaries on the Bible?

A. We think not. And we recommend to the Superintendants of the Circuits to speak to the Members of the Quarterly and Leaders' Meetings on the subject, that, such books may be provided for the Preachers, as soon as possible, particularly Dr. Coke's Commentary.

Q. 15. Can any thing be done to prevent, what appears to us a great evil, namely, BANDS OF MUSIC and THEATRICAL SINGERS being brought into our Chapels, when charity sermons are to be preached?

A. Let none in our Connexion preach Charity Sermons, where such persons and such music are introduced. And let the Stewards, Trustees, and Leaders, be informed that such a practice is offensive to the Conference, who believe it has been hurtful to the minds of many pious people.

Q. 16. Is it right for any Preacher to administer the sacrament in a way contrary to that which is pointed out in the Minutes?

A. No: Therefore let the rule, in page 33, of the Minutes for 1795, be strictly enforced;—namely, That the Lord's Supper be administered in England, according to the form of the Established Church.

Q. 17. What Societies have petitioned this year for the Sacrament?

A. Those at the following places,—

|-------------------|---------------------|
| Shrewsbury,       | Motburn,            |

Q. 18.

Q. 18. What shall be done for the relief of the Foreign Missions?

A. A Collection shall be made in all our congregations in Great Britain, for the support of those Missions the ensuing year, and the money sent to Mr. Whitfield.

N. B. Respecting the Foreign Missions, the following Rules were adopted:

1. The Superintendants shall be responsible to the English Conference, and to their Agent, the Reverend Doctor Coke.

2. The Superintendants shall keep exact accounts of all monies received by them on account of the Missions, and of all disbursements of that money, and transmit those accounts annually to Doctor Coke, or, in his absence, to the London Superintendant, to be laid before the Conference.

3. That the Collections and Disbursements at large, shall be annually laid before the Conference, or before a Committee appointed by the Conference;—that they also shall be transcribed into the Ledger, and published as the Conference shall appoint.

4. That a Yearly Collection, as in Europe, shall be made in all the Islands where it is practicable, for the support of the Work.

5. That every Local Preacher who may in future be sent out as a Missionary, shall engage to labour as such for the term of Ten Years, previous to his enjoying the Privilege of travelling in Europe.

6. That every Preacher who is on Trial as an Itinerant when sent out as a Missionary, shall labour as such till the time of his Probation be expired, and six years following.

N. B. The two last Rules shall not affect those who are already engaged.

7. That every Preacher in full connection, who goes out as a Missionary, shall labour as such for the term of six years. Provided, that in all the above cases, if the health of the Missionaries requires it, they shall have liberty to visit Bermuda, Nova-Scotia, or New-Brunswick.

8. That no person shall, in future, be employed as a Missionary, who is not received upon Trial by the Conference, according to our Rules, or inserted in the List of Reserve.

9. That all our Rules of Discipline, respecting the admission and exclusion of Members, holding Love-feasts, &c. shall be strictly enforced as in Europe; and that the Authority of the Superintendant, in all these things, be the same in every place.

Lastly, The Chairman of every District in Great Britain, shall annually enquire at the meeting of his Committee, whether there be any Preachers among themselves, or any proper Persons among the Local Preachers in their District, who are willing to go upon the Foreign Missions: And each Chairman shall make his report on this subject to the ensuing Conference. And every Superintendant is to propose, as soon as possible, to the Quarterly Meeting, any Local Preacher who is qualified for, and willing to go on a Foreign Mission, that he may be afterward proposed to the District-Committee, and lastly to the Conference.

Q. 19. Have the Preachers who do not come to the Conference been properly informed of their appointments?

A. They have not always been informed in time. To remedy this in future, let the Representative of any District write to his Brethren, (who remain in the Circuits) where they are stationed, as soon as he can, that the stationary Committee may be enabled to please every one, as far as possible.

N. B

Q. 20. Have the Senior Preachers been always stationed as they wished?

A. Some of them have not. In future, the aged Preachers shall be provided with Circuits before any of the others. And no one shall be stationed in London, Bristol, Birmingham, Manchester, or Liverpool, till he is received into full connexion.

Q. 21. Has sufficient care been taken in superannuating Preachers, or in making them Supernumeraries?

A. In several cases, we have reason to think there has not. Henceforward let no Preacher be declared superannuated, or stationed as a supernumerary, without the recommendation of the District Committee to which he belongs, unless, for particular reasons, the Conference, with his own consent, judge it proper.

Q. 22. Are any regulations necessary, with respect to Collections this year?

A. Yes. 1. A general collection is to be made, as soon as possible, throughout Ireland, for the general debt.

2. A collection shall be made, for the same purpose, thro' all the Circuits in Great Britain, where it was not made last year.

3. Our worthy Brother, John Kerr, from Ireland, is authorized by the Irish and English Conferences, to go thro' all the Circuits in Great Britain, to collect money towards building a Chapel in Dublin, according to a promise made last year. See Question 41, in the last year's Minutes.

4. No Collections shall be made before the next Conference, by any Preacher, in any Circuit but that in which he is stationed, except, as mentioned, for the Missions, and the New Chapel in Dublin.

Q. 23. How shall we guard against an impropriety of conduct, in respect to Chapels?

A. 1. No Chapel taken from us UNJUSTLY, shall ever be purchased by us.

2. Let no Chapels be built on the Tontine Plan; that is, when the persons concerned in building them, design to make them their own property, and turn them to their own temporal advantage.

Q. 24. Have not some Local Preachers been injured, by being encouraged to expect they should be called out to travel, without sufficient reason.

A. This has been the case in a few instances. And that it may not be the case any more, Let no Preacher, or number of Preachers, encourage any person to give up his business, and prepare to travel, without the authority of the Conference.

Q. 25. Can any amendment be made in our temporal affairs?

A. 1. We recommend it to every Quarterly-Meeting, where it is not done, to raise the Preachers' Stipend to Four Pounds a quarter.

2. Let no Preacher, Steward, or Leader, on any account, send for our President or Secretary, without bearing his expences.

3. No bill for letters shall be brought to the Conference. Let every Superintendant inform his Brethren, that they are to pay for all the letters they write on public business.

Q. 26. Are our Books disposed of as well as they might be.

A. There is no complaint against any Brother; but there may be an improvement in the two following particulars:

1. That every Superintendant shall have authority to dispose of all the books in his stock, which are unsaleable able according to the Catalogue-price, in the best manner he can.

2. That the Superintendant of the London-Circuit, with the other Members of the Book-Committee, are authorized to take every measure they shall judge expedient, to provide another Warehouse, additional to the present, for the use of the Book-Room.

Q. 27. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. In LEEDS, on the last Monday in July, 1801.
Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES WOOD, President.

SAMUEL BRADBURN, Secretary.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

St. James's, August 8, 1800.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace presented to the King; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Ministers of the People called Methodists, assembled in Conference.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preachers of the Gospel, late in Connection with the Reverend John Wesley, deceased, being assembled in our Fifty-seventh Annual Conference, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with that Veneration which becomes all the Servants of the King of Kings, to feel towards those whom He has appointed in his adorable Providence to execute Righteousness and Judgment in the Earth, and to express our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attempt against the Life of your Majesty, as also our Thankfulness to Almighty God for his gracious Protection so manifestly extended towards your sacred Person.
the

We humbly desire to express to your Majesty that we have, in Conjunction with the People under our Care, upon several Occasions, united with others of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in testifying our sincere Respect for and Attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and our Detestation of all Sedition and Rebellion ; and we beg leave to repeat the same dutiful Sentiments upon this Occasion. We are determined to obey the sacred Injunctions of the God whom we serve, "to pray for Kings and for all that are in Authority ; to be subject to every Ordinance of Man for the Lord's sake ; to obey Magistrates ; to be ready for every good Work ; and to lead a quiet and peaceable Life in all Godliness and Honesty."

That Almighty God may preserve your Majesty from every known and secret Enemy, and long continue you as the Father of your People, and the Minister of God to us for good, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Signed in Behalf of the Conference,

JAMES WOOD, President;

New-Chapel, City Road, London,

July 30, 1800.

N. B. Dr. Coke is appointed President of the Irish Conference next year: And is authorized to send a Missionary to Gibraltar, and another to Madras.

THE family at Kingswood School, consists of a Preacher and his Wife, to superintend the family, two Masters, two Maid-servants, and one Man-servant. During the first quarter there were forty-two boys, and thirty-nine during the last three quarters. We wish our people to recollect that the Scholars are furnished with various things, which boarding schools in general do not supply to their pupils, such as clothing, pocket-money, travelling-expences, books, and stationary, which are all in the preceding account.

Additional expence is also incurred by not having any vacations. Whoever properly considers this, will be convinced that the public contribution for the support of this school, is managed with the greatest frugality.
